

DAVID RICHARDSON

AUTHOR / CRITICAL THINKING INNOVATOR

 LearnToDiscern.com

 AssumptionsInstitute.com

 scheduling@assumptionsinstitute.com

MISSION

Learn To Discern

Our world is in a crisis of truth. Few people understand how to quickly and reliably discern what is true in real-world situations and issues. Without methodical, real-world critical thinking and discernment skills, people will be easily manipulated by fake news, group think, and other people's agendas, and end up living a lie believing they are advancing the truth.

EDUCATION

- BA Interdisciplinary Studies, University of Portland
- MA Theological Studies, International School of Theology
- MTh Applied Theology, University of Oxford

WRITINGS

Transparent: How to See Through the Powerful Assumptions That Control You

GENERAL TOPICS

CRISIS OF TRUTH

- Most Americans believe truth is determined by individuals and groups—that nothing is true for everyone.
- The vast majority of American Christians think the same way.
- The growth of the Church and its influence on culture is a direct consequence of the crisis of truth.
- People can't grasp why others declare good as evil and call evil as good.
- Few understand what creates this truth and moral relativism in our culture.

WORLDVIEW IS THE PROBLEM NOT THE SOLUTION

- Universities, then traditional media, social media, and finally, the culture narrative
- Reasonable ideas from the right are suppressed
- This unbalanced morality is a danger to our republic

(MORE TOPICS ON BACK)

GENERALLY, 65% OF YOUNG ADULTS WHO GREW UP IN CHRISTIAN HOMES, CHURCHES, AND MINISTRIES LEAVE THE FAITH EVERY YEAR.

THE YOUTH EXODUS

- Generally, 65% of young adults who grew up in Christian homes, churches, and ministries leave the faith every year.
- This persistent trend has catastrophic consequences for the Church and the culture.
- Most Christian parents we surveyed want their children to remain Christ-followers into their young adult lives, but few are confident this will actually happen.
- Most Christian parents do not understand why the various means to instill their faith in their children, including Christian school, home school, youth groups, retreats and conferences, and home Bible studies are actually ineffective.
- Assumptions-based discernment training can help achieve the goal most Christian parents desire.

IT'S NOT REAL!

- The assumptions that drive contemporary issues like inequality, diversity, equity, inclusion, race, gender, and more—and where they came from.

THE PROGRESSIVE MIND

- The assumptions that drive progressive ideology and creates intractable cultural and political division.

TRANSHUMANISM

- Why this may be the most pressing issue the church is completely unaware of.